MARKET OF IDEAS I
Delegates, writers, artists, observers and invited guests will engage in workshops and public debates facilitated by ICORN, Paris Bibliothèque and cooperating organisations. They target vital issues regarding freedom of expression and protection and promotion of writers and artists at risk.
(Participants register for their selected workshops/debates during coffee breaks)

The Net: Tool of Resistance? NB: Open to the public
How do journalists, bloggers and cartoonists carry on their fight for freedom of expression and social changes outside their home country through online networks? If the net is a tool of resistance and an opportunity to share their work, can it still be a threat for the writers and artists persecuted for their writings, and how? With: Orlando Luis Pardo Lazo (Cuba), Manal Al Sheik (Iraq) and Sakher Eris (Syria/Maison des Journalistes).
Moderator: Danielle Cliche, UNESCO.

Freedom of Expression/Country Report Burundi
The UN and African leaders fear a genocide in Burundi, violence escalates and a high numbers of people, including journalists, are fleeing the country. What is really happening and why? With Lianna Merner/PEN International and Celine Schmitt/UNHCR.

Protection: Before and After Residency I
ICORN is only one of many ways to protect writers, artists and human rights defenders at risk. Meet organisations that work with protection, learn what they do, and discuss how to protect writers and artists also before and after the ICORN residency. With: PEN International, Reporters Without Borders, Protect Defenders.eu

Best practice I: Promotion and Capacity Building
ICORN's resources are first and foremost found in its member cities. Meet representatives from the cities of Barcelona, Växjö, Pittsburgh and Krakow, and engage in the discussion about win/win situations, networking between ICORN cities, and new ideas for cooperation.

15:45-16:00
Coffee Break

16:00-17:30
MARKET OF IDEAS II

Opposition from a Distance NB: Open to the public
A journalist, a poet, a political observer and a university lecturer: four people who had to flee their countries, where they were threatened for their writings, sometimes imprisoned, even tortured. All of them have faced censorship and violence. They share their experiences of freedom of speech in their countries. Now hosted in European cities, how do they continue to write and work? With Anzhelina Polonskaya (Russia), Mohammad Habeeb (Syria), Nawzat K. Shamdin (Iraq) and Daniel Mekonnen (Eritrea). Moderator: Virgine Guiraudon, Centre des Etudes Européennes de Sciences Po.

Freedom of Expression/Country Report Bangladesh
A series of deadly attacks on atheist bloggers and editors in Bangladesh has alarmed the international community and caused a stream of applications to ICORN. What are the origins of this recent violence in Bangladesh? With Salil Tripathi/PEN International and Ahmedur Rashid Chowdhury/editor and blogger and resident in Skien City of Refuge.
Media publicity: Risk and opportunity

Media publicity can be an advantage, but also a threat to writers and artists at risk. How can and does the host city and the ICORN writers and artists in residence handle media publicity, before, during and after residency?

Artists’ mobility (Rep. Friday)

Cultural mobility practitioners and funders present opportunities to encourage and facilitate cross border mobility and cooperation. With Angie Cotte/Roberto Cimetta Fund, Marie Le Sourd /On the Move and Khadija El Bennoaui/Art Moves Africa. Moderator Mary Ann DeVliegh.
